EMPLOYEE EXCELLENCE

Leading with Dedication

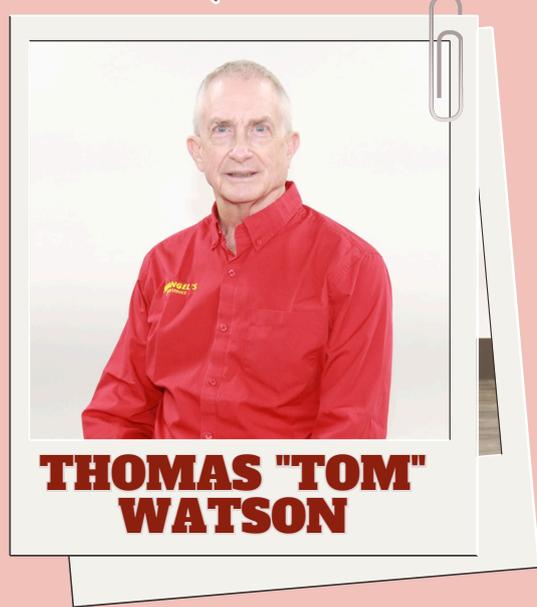

In the heart of Mason's Hardware Do-it Center, one name echoes with the resonance of leadership and dedication – Thomas Watson, affectionately known as Tom, the General Manager. With a legacy spanning over 31 years, Tom's commitment to excellence has been a guiding light for our team.

Morning Rituals and Weekend Pursuits

As the dawn breaks, Tom begins his day with a simple yet profound ritual – waking up, taking a deep breath, and embarking on a refreshing walk. Behind the scenes, Tom harbors a hidden passion – his expertise in Giant Clams, a testament to his multifaceted nature. On weekends, you'll find Tom immersed in his diverse ventures, from tending to his clam, coral, and fruit farms to engaging in the cherished tradition of witnessing house to house. However, above all accomplishments, Tom treasures his family, imperfect yet uniquely his own.

Influence and Inspiration

Tom's approach to work is deeply influenced by the legendary John Wayne. Just as the iconic cowboy remained loyal to his brand, Tom embodies unwavering loyalty to Surangel's mission. Like Wayne, Tom isn't afraid to get his hands dirty in the pursuit of excellence. He's proven this through his tenacity in overseeing the procurement of chlorine to treat Palau's drinking water, a project initiated in 1995. This endeavor has honed his organizational and communication skills, while also refining processes crucial for our operations.

Tom's Reflections

In Tom's own words, "They may not be perfect, but they're all mine." This sentiment encapsulates his dedication to his family and his work. Through challenges and triumphs alike, Tom has exemplified the spirit of perseverance, leaving an indelible mark on our company's journey.

Tom's legacy at Mason's Hardware Do-it Center is not merely measured in years of service but in the lives he has touched and the foundations he has laid for future success.

As we continue to chart our course forward, let us draw inspiration from Tom's steadfastness, commitment, and unwavering loyalty.
